

Dianne Sutter

Vice President of Global Procurement and Market Supply Officer
Frito-Lay North America

Vice President
PepsiCo North America Transportation

Dianne Sutter is vice president of global procurement and market supply officer for Frito-Lay North America and vice president of PepsiCo North America Transportation. In this role, Dianne is responsible for setting and executing strategies related to the procurement of ingredients, packaging, indirect materials and transportation across all of our North America businesses.

Dianne began her career with PepsiCo in 1993 and has held a variety of roles in PepsiCo's global procurement group across both foods and beverages.

Prior to joining PepsiCo's global procurement group, Dianne held several positions within PepsiCo's treasury organization, including leadership roles in international treasury, global cash management and international treasury consulting.

Previously, Dianne worked in commercial banking, most recently as a vice president for JP Morgan Chase & Co.

Dianne holds an MBA from New York University, a Bachelor of Science from the Wharton School of Business and a Bachelor of Arts from the University of Pennsylvania.

